

PRESS RELEASE

Distortion Festival 2009

Wed. 3 – Sun. 7 June

DISTORTION, Copenhagen's streetlife & nightlife festival, is, once again, planning to break the boundaries of street-partying & club-culturing.

Distortion orchestrates 66 parties taking place all over Copenhagen for 5 days in 66 different locations. Each day Distortion invades one specific Copenhagen neighborhood. The 66 events include 16 street parties, 3 massive block parties, 40 small parties/receptions in busses, shops, galleries, bars, bungalows, beaches, boats and under bridges. And of course one big fat rave, every night, which is the only part of the festival that is not totally free. These night parties are called ClubClash and feature names like SuperMayer, Wildbirds&Peacedrums, Glass Candy, Monotonix, Black Lips... and local heroes Trentemøller, Whomadewho and TomBoy (who is the Distortion music director).

More than a regular “music” festival, Distortion is a statement of exploding party energy, with self-imposed rules like: no VIP areas or closed backstage parties, no-or-low-security, 3 euro for a beer, and with a discrete and friendly (yet elitist at wish) agenda of celebrating the very cutting edge in club culture.

Also, Distortion is a celebration of Copenhagen, the coolest city in the world.

“The longest and the wildest party, ever” (milkandmoney.mag., Norway, 2008)

”The party of the year” (Copenhagen Awards, Politiken, 2009)

“the best of chic and choc” (Colette, Paris, 2005)

Distortion exploded in 2008, so far only a few hipsters from Berlin and Paris had discovered the festival, but it’s starting to spread. In 2009, Distortion will be on tour with a PoolParty at Sonar (June) and with a RaverBus at C-O-Pop (August).
